

Webinar: Hook-Up Related Violence in LGBTQ Communities

Is this a DVAM Event?: No

Go live:

November 12, 2013

When: 11/26/2013 12pm-2pm CST

Where: online

The National Coalition of Anti-Violence Programs? (NCAVP) National Training and Technical Assistance Center and the National Network to End Domestic Violence (NNEDV) invite you to our webinar, Hook-Up Related Violence in Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, and Queer (LGBTQ) Communities. This webinar will educate participants on intimate and sexual violence in LGBTQ communities which occurs in the context of hooking up, examine barriers to support for survivors, educate participants on tech-related issues as they relate to hook-up violence connected to hook-up sites and apps, and provide promising practices for reaching and supporting LGBTQ survivors of hook-up related violence. Upon completing this webinar participants will have an understanding of hook-up related violence in LGBTQ communities, current promising practices for safety planning within hook-up sites and apps, supporting survivors, educating communities, and resources for ongoing support.

Join presenters Chai Jindasurat (NCAVP), Erica Olsen (NNEDV), and Kaofeng Lee (NNEDV) for Hook-Up Related Violence in LGBTQ Communities.
