TEEN SUMMIT

WHAT IS THE TEEN SUMMIT?

The annual Teen Summit is End Domestic Abuse Wisconsin's largest training, bringing youth, parents, educators, activists, and mentors from all over Wisconsin to learn about healthy relationships, teen dating violence (TDV), and sexual assault (SA) within a larger anti-oppression framework.

It will be a celebration of our many successes, as well as a time to revive and strengthen ourselves and our movement. We welcome attendees to challenge preconceived notions on how to deal with these issues and learn new strategies for successful prevention and education on teen issues.

This is a poetic writing workshop and safe place to process and create with others.

The Journey: Avoiding Pit Falls of Human Trafficking by Nancy Yarbrough

The what, where , why and who of Human Trafficking.

Relationships Matter by Lea Hortman

Learn about the power of relationships & strategies to have an enhanced value on healthy relationships.

R-E-S-P-E-C-T by A. Love

The goal: to get youth to understand the value of self-respect, realize when it's compromised, & explore tips to preserve it.

Native Land, Two-Spirit Love: Why LGBTQ Native American Stories Matter by Kai Pyle

Come learn why LGBTQ Native American history & life today matters, while we live together on Indigenous land.

It's the Accountability for Me & Other Liberated Tales by Yante Turner & Jennifer Williams

In this workshop, we will explore our communities & our own accountability for radical social and personal change.

Community Organizing by Vionetre Petty

Learn the necessity of promunity in our community, as well as recognizing and rectifying the problems of our youth.

MONDAY, 3/1 WORKSHOPS

Indigenous Poetics by Angie Trudell Vasquez

In Memory of CJ Doxtater, a retrospective of Indigenous Poetics, how poems can & have contributed to peace, social justice & healing.

The Rod Wave Effect: A Culturally-Responsive Examination of the "Sad Aesthetic" in Youth Culture by Zion Rogers

Break down organizing as one way to fight for justice. Examine victories through organizing & how long-term change is built.

Exploring Values and Boundaries by Breann Clark and Tess Lybert

Explore important parts of your life to determine values that guide your behaviors. Values help determine & understand your boundaries leading to healthier relationships.

Stepping in versus Sliding in by Zahria Tucker, Lashonda Good & Lauren Miranda

Taking action to be direct vs sliding into something comfortable sets the healthy boundaries in relationships.

TUESDAY, 3/2 WORKSHOPS

Youth Empowerment by Ajani Carr

An engaging conversation about 4 topics; Passion and Purpose, Goals and Obstacles, Perseverance, & Positive Thinking.

The Breakthrough by Shelly Conley, Tina Nixon, Amanda Buchanan & Kashunda Brown

The Breakthrough connects you intimately with women who used poetry to address trauma and move to healing. Expect poetry performances, writing, healing & truth.

Social Justice is More Than Just Us by Ajamou Butler

In the arena of Social Justice work, we have to be reminded that the work is not about us. The work that we do is making a commitment to serving causes greater than ourselves and serving our community.

Issues Impacting Marginalized: Beyond the Label Vibes by Samantha Collier

We'll explore the relationship between domestic & sexual violence, mental health, and substance use. It is based on the wisdom of survivors, national leaders in crisis services & trauma recovery, & domestic violence & sexual assault professionals.

Narrative-Shifting through Spoken Word by Kyle "Guante" Tran Myhre

Many of the tools that poets and other artists use are directly relevant to other forms of communication too, especially advocacy and activist work. We'll explore some tactics drawn from the world of spoken word poetry, and talk about how they relate to narrative-shifting more broadly: framing campaigns, designing materials, structuring persuasive writing, and beyond.
